MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Inappropriate Relationships and Fraternization

1. References:

- a. AR 600-20, Army Command Policy, 18 March 2008.
- b. AR 350-1, Army Training and Leader Development, 18 December 2009.
- c. AR 600-105, Aviation Service of Rated Army Officers, 22 June 2010.
- d. TRADOC Regulation (Reg) 350-36, Basic Officer Leaders Course Training Policies and Administration, 16 November 2010.
- e. TRADOC Reg 350-6, Enlisted Initial Entry Training Policies and Administration, 19 July 2012.
- f. USAACE Reg 600-1, Prohibited and Regulated Conduct, 26 July 2010.

2. The USAACE conducts the missions of both initial entry training/advanced individual training (IET/AIT) and officer initial military training (IMT) for aviation professionals, as well as many other courses of professional military education. This policy is intended to clarify the standard for inappropriate relationships as defined in the listed references while assigned to the USAACE for training. For purposes of this policy, the following definitions apply:

- a. IET/AIT - Enlisted aviation personnel assigned to the USAACE in order to conduct initial military occupational specialty (MOS) or advanced MOS training.
- b. IMT - Warrant officer candidates attending Warrant Officer Candidate School, and warrant officers and commissioned officers who are in flight school.
- c. Flight school - Any portion of training which occurs at the USAACE prior to the officer being awarded an aeronautical rating as an Army aviator per AR 600-105.
- d. Other military students - Soldiers or officers attending courses of professional military education at the USAACE other than IET/AIT or flight school.

3. Inappropriate Fraternization.

- a. It is inappropriate for permanent party personnel and any other military student assigned to the USAACE or any tenant unit of Fort Rucker, or any military personnel at Fort Rucker TDY for any purpose, to be involved in a personal relationship (as defined by AR 600-20, paragraphs 4-14 and 4-15, and TRADOC Reg 350-6, paragraph 2-6d) with IET/AIT or IMT trainees as defined in paragraph 2 above or references cited in paragraph 1 above.

ATZQ-SJA

SUBJECT: Inappropriate Relationships and Fraternization

b. This policy does not limit or replace any other prohibitions on relationships listed in the referenced regulations; it is a supplement to them.

c. The prohibitions against improper relationships shall not be construed as limiting, extending, or modifying in any way the offense of fraternization as addressed by Article 134, UCMJ.

4. Violations of this policy may be punished under Article 92, UCMJ.

5. This memorandum supersedes Policy Memo 12-05, dated 15 February 2012, and will remain in effect until changed or formally rescinded.
